CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Plaintiffs and Class Representatives LLE ONE, LLC, d/b/a Crowd Siren and d/b/a Social Media Models, and Jonathan Murdough, and Defendant Facebook Inc. (collectively, the “Parties”), hereby enter into this Agreement which provides for the settlement and final resolution of the Action defined below, subject to the approval of the Court.

I. RECITALS

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs are named plaintiffs and proposed class representatives in the Action, which is a putative class action lawsuit against Facebook in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California captioned LLE One, LLC, et al. v. Facebook, Inc., Case No. 4:16-cv-06232-JSW (N.D. Cal.);

WHEREAS, the Action is comprised of two consolidated lawsuits: Letizia, et al. v. Facebook Inc., No. 4:16-cv-06232 (N.D. Cal.) (which was initially filed on October 27, 2016), and Quirky, Inc. v. Facebook, Inc., No. 3:17-cv-00233 (initially filed on January 17, 2017);

WHEREAS, the Court consolidated the two actions for all purposes on February 13, 2017, (ECF No. 32);

WHEREAS, the plaintiffs in the consolidated action and their counsel have worked together cooperatively to prosecute the action on their own behalf and on behalf of proposed class members;

WHEREAS, the nature of the action is detailed in the Fourth Amended Class Action Complaint, (ECF No. 165), which alleges among other things that Facebook incorrectly calculated two metrics concerning the average view times for video advertisements;

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs assert claims for breach of contractual duties; violation of California’s Unfair Competition Law, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq.; and for common law fraud;

WHEREAS, Facebook denies that Plaintiffs’ claims are meritorious, denies that it is liable to Plaintiffs or any member of the Settlement Class for any of the matters asserted in the Action, and disputes that Plaintiffs may obtain certification of any class for litigation purposes;

WHEREAS, the parties briefed four motions to dismiss filed by Facebook, which ultimately led to the Court dismissing Plaintiffs’ claim for unjust enrichment and allowing Plaintiffs’ remaining claims to proceed into discovery;

WHEREAS, Facebook filed answers on June 22, 2018, (ECF No. 137), and May 9, 2019, (ECF No. 184);

WHEREAS, the Action involved approximately 2 1/2 years of litigation activity, during which time the Parties engaged in substantial pretrial activity in addition to the motion to dismiss briefing described above, including extensive written discovery, the production of nearly 500,000 pages of documents (by Plaintiffs, Defendant, and third parties), 11 depositions, the filing of 8 joint letter briefs concerning discovery disputes, expert work, and the preparation of Plaintiffs’ motion for class certification, which would have been filed June 14, 2019, absent this Settlement;

WHEREAS, in addition to their efforts devoted to prosecuting and defending the Action, the Parties have explored and discussed at length the factual and legal issues raised in the Action;

WHEREAS, the Parties engaged in discussions about the potential resolution of the Action, after which, on April 10, 2019, they participated in an all-day, in-person mediation with former Chief Judge of the U.S. District Court, Northern District of California, Vaughn R. Walker;

WHEREAS, following the in-person mediation the Parties engaged in further negotiations and discussions over the span of approximately two months with Judge Walker's assistance in a continuing effort to resolve the Action;

WHEREAS, with Judge Walker's assistance, the Parties reached agreement on June 11, 2019, to resolve the Action and subsequently memorialized the terms of their settlement in this Agreement, including the attached exhibits; the Parties' negotiations have at all times been at arms-length;

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs, by and through Class Counsel, have (a) made a thorough investigation of the facts and circumstances surrounding the allegations in the Action; (b) investigated the claims asserted in the Action, including but not limited to by (i) researching, reviewing, and analyzing industry data, information, and public reports; (ii) collaborating with, interviewing, or deposing witness(es), consultants, and experts; (iii) reviewing and analyzing documents produced by Defendant and third parties; and (iv) investigating the law applicable to the claims asserted in the Action, including the defenses that would likely be asserted;

WHEREAS, Class Counsel are experienced in this type of litigation, recognize the costs and risk of continued prosecution of the Action, and believe that it is in Plaintiffs' and all Settlement Class Members' interest to resolve this Action as set forth herein;

WHEREAS, Facebook has concluded that settlement is desirable to resolve, finally and completely, all pending and potential claims of Plaintiffs and all Settlement Class Members relating to the alleged practices at issue;

WHEREAS, the Parties believe that this Agreement offers significant benefits to Settlement Class Members and is fair, reasonable, adequate, and in the best interest of Settlement Class Members;

WHEREAS, by executing this Agreement and as a material condition of the settlement, the Parties intend to settle and dispose of, fully and completely, both individually and on a classwide basis, all claims, demands, and causes of action related to the conduct that was alleged or that could have been alleged in the Action, as more fully set forth in this Agreement.

It is expressly intended and understood by the Parties that this Agreement is to be construed as a complete settlement, accord, and satisfaction of the Released Claims.

With respect to the Released Claims, Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members will be deemed to have, and by operation of the Final Approval Order will have, expressly waived and relinquished, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the provisions, rights and benefits of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, and any other similar provision under federal or state law that purports to limit the scope of a general release. California Civil Code section 1542 provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

3. For good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Facebook fully and forever releases, acquits, and discharges Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel ("Plaintiff Released Parties"), collectively, separately, individually and severally, from, and covenants not to sue for, any and all claims, demands, rights, liabilities, grievances, damages, remedies, liquidated damages, punitive damages, attorneys' fees, penalties, losses, actions, and causes of action of every nature and description whatsoever, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, asserted or unasserted, whether in tort, contract, statute, rule, ordinance, order, regulation, common law, public policy, equity, or otherwise, whether class, representative, individual or otherwise, including, without limitation, any and all claims relating to the Action (collectively, "Released Facebook Claims"). It is expressly intended and understood by the Parties that this Agreement is to be construed as a complete settlement, accord, and satisfaction of Facebook Released Claims.

4. With respect to the Released Facebook Claims, Facebook stipulates and agrees that it will be deemed to have, and by operation of the Final Approval Order will have, expressly waived and relinquished, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the provisions, rights and benefits of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, or any other similar provision under federal or state law that purports to limit the scope of a general release. California Civil Code section 1542 provides:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

What is the lawsuit about? Plaintiffs allege an error led Facebook to incorrectly calculate two metrics about how long, on average, users watched Facebook video ads, impacting how much advertisers spent. Facebook acknowledges it incorrectly calculated the metrics but denies the metrics impacted spending and otherwise denies the lawsuit's allegations.

What are the settlement benefits? Facebook will pay $40 million to resolve the suit; an estimated $26 million will be paid to class members. Your recovery will depend upon how much you spent on Facebook video ads during the class period. Payments will be sent automatically. If you spent $500,000 or more, you will be mailed a check; more than $15, you will be emailed a digital debit card; $15 or less, you'll receive an account credit, and if your account is inactive, you will receive a digital debit card.

What are your other options? If you want to sue Facebook, you must exclude yourself to preserve your rights. If you're a Class Member, you can ask the Court to deny approval by filing an objection, however the Court cannot change the terms of the Settlement. The deadline to exclude from or object to the Settlement is [date], www.xxxxxx.com.

Fairness Hearing: The Court will hold a hearing on [month], [day], [year] to consider approving the settlement and a request by the class's attorneys for attorneys' fees (up to $12 million), cost reimbursements (up to $800,000), and service awards (up to $25,000) to the class representatives. You may ask to appear at the hearing, but you don't have to.

How do I get more information? This notice summarizes the proposed Settlement. For the precise terms, please see the long-form notice and settlement agreement, available at www.xxxxxx.com, by contacting Class Counsel at [phone number], by accessing the Court docket in this case, for a fee, through the Court's PACER system at <https://ecf.cand.uscourts.gov>, or by visiting the office of the Clerk of the Court for the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, 1301 Clay Street, Oakland, CA 94612, between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, excluding Court holidays.

EXHIBIT A-2

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

If you bought video advertising on a Facebook-owned platform, you could get a payment from a class action settlement.

A federal court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

- Facebook, Inc., has agreed to pay $40 million to resolve a class action lawsuit brought on behalf of U.S. advertisers who bought video advertising on a Facebook-owned platform between February 12, 2015, and September 23, 2016.
- The settlement resolves a lawsuit over whether Facebook acted unlawfully by overstating how long its users watched video advertisements during the class period. The settlement avoids costs and risks to you from continuing the lawsuit; pays money to purchasers of video advertising like you; and releases Facebook, Inc., from liability.
- The attorneys representing all Class Members will file a request for attorneys’ fees (up to $12 million), cost reimbursements (up to $800,000), and service awards (up to $25,000 in total) to the Class Representatives for investigating the facts, litigating the case, and negotiating the Settlement. If these fees, costs, and service awards are granted and after settlement administration expenses are paid, an estimated $26 million will remain to be paid to Class Members.
- The two sides disagree on how much money could have been won if purchasers of Facebook video advertising won a trial. Plaintiffs estimate that the most the Class might recover at a trial is $100-$200 million. That best-case scenario assumes Plaintiffs win class certification, survive summary judgment, overcome challenges to their experts and damages models, then win at trial, and win any post-trial appeals, all of which is difficult, expensive, and would likely take several more years. On top of that, a jury could find for the Plaintiffs but award less money than Plaintiffs request, including minimal or no damages. For its part, Facebook believes that even if Plaintiffs had succeeded at trial, the alleged unlawful conduct did not cause any damages and so the Class would recover nothing.
- Your legal rights are affected whether you act or don’t act. Read this notice carefully.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT:
EXCLUDE YOURSELF	Get no payment. This is the only option that allows you to ever be part of any other lawsuit against Facebook, Inc., about the legal claims in this case.
OBJECT	Write to the Court about why you don’t like the settlement.
GO TO A HEARING	Ask to speak in Court about the fairness of the settlement.

Do NOTHING	Get a payment. Give up rights.

- These rights and options—and the deadlines to exercise them—are explained in this notice.
- The Court in charge of this case still has to decide whether to approve the settlement. Payments will be made if the Court approves the settlement and after appeals are resolved. Please be patient.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why did I get this notice package?

You may have had an account with Facebook, Inc., and paid for placement of video advertising on a Facebook-owned platform between February 12, 2015, and September 23, 2016.

The Court sent you this notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement of a class action lawsuit, and about all of your options, before the Court decides whether to approve the settlement. If the Court approves it and after objections and appeals are resolved, an administrator appointed by the Court will make the payments that the settlement allows. You will be informed of the progress of the settlement at www.██████████.com.

This package explains the lawsuit, the settlement, your legal rights, what benefits are available, who is eligible for them, and how to get them.

The Court in charge of the case is the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, and the case is known as LLE One, LLC, et al., v. Facebook, Inc., Case No. 4:16-cv-06232-JSW. The companies and people who sued are called Plaintiffs, and the company they sued, Facebook, Inc., is called the Defendant.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The lawsuit alleges that an error led Facebook to incorrectly calculate two metrics concerning how long, on average, users were watching Facebook video advertisements. The two metrics were average duration of video viewed and average percentage of video viewed. The lawsuit alleges that the error impacted how much video advertisers spent on Facebook advertising. Facebook acknowledges that it incorrectly calculated the two metrics for a limited period but denies that the metrics impacted advertiser spending and otherwise denies the lawsuit's allegations.

3. Why is this a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called Class Representatives (in this case, LLE One, LLC, and Jonathan Murdough) sue on behalf of companies and people who have similar claims. All these companies and people are a Class or Class Members. One court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Class. U.S. District Judge Jeffrey S. White is in charge of this class action.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court did not decide in favor of Plaintiffs or Defendant. Instead, both sides agreed to a settlement. That way, they avoid the multi-year delay, risk, and cost of further litigation and a trial, and the people affected will get compensation. The Class Representatives and the attorneys think the settlement is best for all Class Members.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT

To see if you will get money from this settlement, you first have to decide if you are a Class Member.

5. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

You are a member of the class if you are a U.S. persons or entity who, from February 12, 2015, to September 23, 2016, had an account with Facebook, Inc. and paid for placement of video advertisements on a Facebook-owned platform.

6. Are there exceptions to being included?

You are not a Class Member if you are Facebook, Inc., an entity in which Facebook has a controlling interest, are one of Facebook’s officers, directors, legal representatives, successors, subsidiaries, or assigns, or you are a judge to whom this case is assigned, the judge’s spouse, or have a third degree of relationship to the judge or his spouse, or are the spouse of someone with a third degree of relationship.

If you paid for video advertising on a Facebook-owned platform, that alone does not make you a Class Member. You are a Class Member only if you had an account with Facebook, Inc., and also paid for Facebook video advertising between February 12, 2015, and September 23, 2016. You also must be a U.S. person or entity to be a Class Member.

7. I’m still not sure if I am included.

If you are still not sure whether you are included, you can ask for free help. You can call 1-8xx-xxx-xxx or visit www._____.com for more information.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS—WHAT YOU GET

8. What does the settlement provide?

Facebook, Inc., has agreed to create a fund of $40,000,000. After attorneys’ fees, costs, service awards, and settlement administration expenses are deducted, an estimated $26,000,000 will be divided among Class Members.

9. How much will my payment be?

Your share of the fund will depend on how much money you spent on video advertising on a Facebook-owned platform between February 12, 2015, and September 23, 2016. The chart below provides an estimate of Class Members’ recoveries if $26,000,000 is divided among Class Members:

--	--	--	--

Amount spent on video advertising from 2/12/2015 to 9/23/2016	Maximum damages-recovery at trial (Plaintiffs' estimate) ¹	Alternative damages-recovery at trial (Facebook's estimate)	Estimated Settlement Payment ²
$250,000.00	$6,375.00 to $12,750.00	$0.00	$1,675.00
$150,000.00	$3,825.00 to $7,650.00	$0.00	$1,005.00
$75,000.00	$1,912.50 to $3,825.00	$0.00	$502.50
$50,000.00	$1,275.00 to $2,550.00	$0.00	$335.00
$25,000.00	$637.50 to $1,275.00	$0.00	$167.50
$10,000.00	$255.00 to $510.00	$0.00	$67.00
$5,000.00	$127.50 to $255.00	$0.00	$33.50
$1,000.00	$25.50 to $51.00	$0.00	$6.70
$500.00	$12.75 to $25.50	$0.00	$3.35
$100.00	$2.55 to $5.10	$0.00	$0.67

In short, those who bought more video advertising on a Facebook-owned platform during the class period will get more settlement money; those who spent fewer dollars on advertising during the class period will get less. All of the settlement fund that remains after attorneys' fees expenses, costs, service awards, and settlement administration expenses are paid will be distributed to Class Members.

HOW YOU GET A PAYMENT

10. How can I get a payment?

You do not need to do anything to receive your share of the settlement. Your money will be sent to you automatically if the Court approves the settlement, unless you exclude yourself from the settlement.

The form of payment you receive will depend on how much you spent on video advertising during the class period.

- Class Members who spent more than $500,000 on video advertising during the Class Period³ will be mailed a check.⁴

² This is an estimate. The final payout will depend upon what the Court ultimately awards in attorneys fees, costs, incentive awards as well as settlement administration expenses and the number of class members that opt-out.

³ February 12, 2015 through September 23, 2016.

- If you have an active Facebook advertiser account, you can opt to receive an account credit instead.⁵
- Class Members who spent more than $15 and but less than $500,000 on video advertising during the Class Period will be emailed a digital MasterCard (which can be used as a debit card anywhere MasterCard is accepted).
 - If you have an active Facebook advertiser account, you can opt to receive a credit to your account or a check instead.⁶
- Class Members who spent less than or equal to $15 on video advertising during the Class Period will receive their money as follows:
 - If you maintain an active Facebook advertiser account, you will receive a credit to your account.⁷ If you prefer, you can opt to receive a digital MasterCard instead.
 - If your Facebook advertiser account is no longer active, you will receive a digital MasterCard.

If you would like to change your payment method to something different from the default (e.g., from an account credit to a digital MasterCard), if you are not sure Facebook has your correct mailing or email address, or if you are not sure whether your Facebook account is active or inactive, please visit www.████████.com for instructions on how to update or view this information.

Again, you do not need to do anything to receive your money. It will be sent automatically if the Court approves the settlement.

11. When would I get my payment?

The Court will hold a hearing on [date], to decide whether to approve the settlement. If Judge White approves the settlement after that, there may be appeals. It's always uncertain whether these appeals can be resolved, and resolving them can take time, perhaps more than a year. Class Members will be informed of the progress of the settlement at www.████████.com. Please be patient.

12. What am I giving up to get a payment or stay in the Class?

Unless you exclude yourself, you are staying in the Class, and that means that you can't sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Facebook about the legal issues in this case. It also means that all of the Court's orders will apply to you and legally bind you. If you do not exclude yourself, you will agree to the "Mutual Release," in Section XIII of the Settlement Agreement, available at www.████████.com, which describes exactly the legal claims that you give up if you get settlement benefits.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you don't want a payment from this settlement, but you want to keep the right to sue or continue to sue Facebook, Inc., on your own, about the legal issues in this case, then you must take steps to get out. This is called excluding yourself—or is sometimes referred to as opting out of the settlement Class.

13. How do I get out of the settlement?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must send a letter by mail saying that you want to be excluded from LLE One, LLC, et al., v. Facebook, Inc. (Case No. 4:16-cv-06232-JSW) (N.D. Cal.). Be sure to include your name, mailing address, email address, Facebook advertiser account identification number, and your signature. You must mail your exclusion request postmarked no later than [date] to:

Facebook Exclusions

[address line 1]

[address line 2]

If you ask to be excluded, you will not get any settlement payment, and you cannot object to the settlement. You will not be legally bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit. You may be able to sue (or continue to sue) Facebook in the future.

14. If I don't exclude myself, can I sue Facebook for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any right to sue Facebook for the claims that this settlement resolves. If you have a pending lawsuit, speak to your lawyer in that case immediately. You must exclude yourself from this Class to continue your own lawsuit. Remember, the exclusion deadline is [date].

15. If I exclude myself, can I get money from this settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive any money from this settlement. But, you may sue, continue to sue, or be part of a different lawsuit against Facebook.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

16. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

Class counsel in this case are Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC (<https://www.cohenmilstein.com>), in Washington, D.C., Eglet Adams (www.egletlaw.com), in Las Vegas, NV, and Gibbs Law Group LLP (www.classlawgroup.com), in Oakland, CA, You will not be charged for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

17. How will the lawyers be paid?

Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve payment of up to $12 million for attorneys' fees and reimbursement of up to $800,000 in the litigation expenses they incurred over the past three years. The attorney's fees would pay Class Counsel for investigating the facts, litigating the case, and negotiating the settlement. They will also request payments of up to $15,000 to Plaintiff LLE One, LLC and up to $10,000 to Jonathan Murdough for their services as Class Representatives. The Court may award less than these amounts. These amounts have already been accounted for in projecting the approximately $26 million available for Class Members.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

You can tell the Court that you don't agree with the settlement or some part of it.

18. How do I tell the Court that I don't like the settlement?

If you're a Class Member, you can ask the Court to deny approval by filing an objection. You can't ask the Court to order a different settlement; the Court can only approve or reject the settlement. If the Court denies approval, no settlement payments will be sent out and the lawsuit will continue. If that is what you want to happen, you must object.

Any objection to the proposed settlement must be in writing. If you file a timely written objection, you may, but are not required to, appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either in person or through your own attorney. If you appear through your own attorney, you are responsible for hiring and paying that attorney. All written objections and supporting papers must (a) clearly identify the case name and number (LLE One, LLC, et al., v. Facebook, Inc., Case No. 4:16-cv-06232-JSW), (b) be submitted to the Court either by mailing them to the Class Action Clerk, United States District Court for the Northern District of California, Oakland Division, 1301 Clay Street, Suite 400 S, Oakland, California 94612, or by filing them in person at any location of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, and (c) be filed or postmarked on or before [date].

Be sure to include your name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, Facebook advertiser account identification number, your signature, the reasons you object to the settlement, whether you are objecting on behalf of only yourself, the settlement Class, or a subset of the settlement Class, a disclosure of the number of class action settlements you have objected to in the last 5 years (and if you have an attorney, the same disclosure for your attorney), whether you (or your attorney) intend to appear at the final approval hearing, and the name and contact information of any and all attorneys representing, advising, or assisting you, including all individuals who may be entitled to compensation for any reason related to the objection or comment.

19. What's the difference between objecting and excluding?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you don't like something about the settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Class. Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you don't want to be part of the Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement. You may attend and you may ask to speak, but you don't have to.

20. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the settlement?

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing at [time] on [day of the week, date], at the Ronald V. Dellums Federal Building and U.S. Courthouse, 1301 Clay Street, Oakland, California 94612, in Courtroom 5 on the 2nd Floor. At this hearing the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. Judge White will listen to people who have asked to speak at the hearing. The Court may also decide how much to pay to Class Counsel and the Class Representatives. After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the settlement. We do not know how long these decisions will take.

The court may reschedule the fairness hearing or change any of the deadlines described in this notice. The date of the fairness hearing may change without further notice to Class Members. Be sure to check the settlement website, [www. \[redacted\].com](http://www. [redacted].com), for news of any such changes. You can also check whether the hearing date or any deadlines have changed by accessing the case docket via the Court's Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) system at <https://ecf.cand.uscourts.gov>.

21. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer questions Judge White may have. But, you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you mailed your written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, but it's not necessary.

22. May I speak at the hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Fairness Hearing. To do so, you must indicate your desire to speak at the hearing in your objection letter (see section 18 above). You cannot speak at the hearing if you excluded yourself.

If You Do Nothing

23. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing, you'll receive a settlement payment as described above, as long as the Court approves the settlement. But, unless you exclude yourself, you won't be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit against Facebook about the legal issues in this case, ever again.
